ABSTRACT

This directory provides information about the more than 350 community level agencies offering citizenship services. It is designed for use by resident aliens, community activists, elected officials, and others interested in the citizenship process. The entries are listed alphabetically by State and each includes the agency's name and address, number of clients served yearly, percentage of Hispanic clients served, specific services offered, fees charged, and types of classroom instruction offered. Contact information is provided for each agency. Agencies are listed by zip code within the State for ease of access. The introductory material is provided in English and Spanish, as is a concluding section on naturalization requirements and procedures. A list of directors of state boards of education is also included. (CG)

MESSAGE FROM HARRY PACHON, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF NALEO

As a nation of immigrants, our country has always confronted the issue of naturalizing the foreign born to American citizenship. In the early part of this century, with immigrants constituting such a large percentage of our nation's population, the values of promoting American citizenship were clearly recognized. In recent years, however, we have been less aware that close to 200,000 immigrants become American citizens each year. The National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials (NALEO) Education Fund believes that American citizenship needs to be aggressively promoted among all our immigrants. To this end, with support from the Ford Foundation, the National Directory is published as a resource to our prospective new citizens.

The NALEO National Directory of Citizenship Services provides a comprehensive enumeration of citizenship providers throughout the United States. Almost universally, the agencies provide counseling on the requirements for citizenship and assistance in filling out the necessary application forms. Many of the agencies also prepare and distribute printed guides that will better prepare the applicant for the naturalization exam. Some agencies also offer classes to give the applicant a sufficient knowledge of U.S. History and Government and English to pass the exam. This guide will allow the future citizens to decide which agencies in their areas best meet their needs.

With the guidance available from any of these citizenship service agencies, the naturalization process will be simplified. We urge you to take advantage of this resource.

NALEO's National Directory of Citizenship Services, the first of its kind, provides basic information about the more than 350 community level agencies offering citizenship services. If you are a resident alien seeking information on the citizenship process, this directory will refer you to people who can assist you in your efforts. If you are a community activist, elected official or other interested party, the information presented here can provide a basis for referrals to citizenship service providing agencies. We have tried to summarize the most salient features of the services provided by each agency as described by the agency itself. If we have failed to include information you need, or if you have any questions about the directory, or the naturalization process, feel free to call NALEO's toll free citizenship information hotline. You can reach NALEO from 9-5 (Eastern Time) Monday to Friday at 1-800-44-NALEO (1-800-446-2536).

HOW TO USE THIS DIRECTORY

Each agency listing contains as many as five sections. These are: the name and address of the agency, the number of clients served yearly and the percentage of these clients who are Hispanic, the specific services offered by the agency, the fees charged for these services, and the types of classroom instruction offered by the agency. We include only the sections that apply to each agency. For instance, if an agency does not offer classroom instruction, we do not include that section.

AGENCY DATA

For each agency, we have listed an address and telephone number as well as the name of a person within the agency who is responsible for providing citizenship services. Call before visiting the agency. Some offer citizenship assistance only on certain days. You should also verify the current address of the agency before your first visit since some agencies have several locations and others may have moved.

This directory is organized by zip codes. The best way to look for an agency near your home is to look for zip codes similar to your own. The table of contents lists each state and the page number on which agency listings for that state begin. Once the state is found, find the zip code for your area. If you live near another state, it is also wise to look in the listings for the neighboring state (for example, residents of Northern New Jersey should look in the New York listings).

CLIENTS SERVED

If there are several citizenship service agencies in your area, you will want to evaluate which one best meets your needs. If more than one meets your service needs (see "Services Provided"), it might prove helpful to examine which agency is able to serve the largest number of citizenship clients. We have included the numbers of citizenship clients served each year, and the number of these clients that become citizens yearly, as well as the percentage of these clients who are Hispanic. Again, this information is included only if it was provided to NALEO by the agency.

SERVICES PROVIDED

In collecting information from the citizenship service providers, we have found that five basic services are most often provided. These services include: assistance in filling out forms, counseling on the citizenship process, legal assistance, referrals to other agencies, and preparation of materials for classroom instruction. For each agency included here, we have listed the frequency with which these services are provided. If the service is not listed under the agency's name, the agency failed to provide that information to NALEO and most likely does not offer that service. We have also included information on unique services offered by some agencies such as translation, fingerprinting, and advocacy before the Immigration and Naturalization Service - to give you a complete view of the citizenship services available in your area.

COSTS

We have included the fees charged by each agency. Where possible, we list a dollar amount. If this amount was not provided to us, we state that a fee is charged. In any case, be sure to ask the fee for any citizenship service before beginning the process.

If an organization charges a fee that you cannot afford, check to see if the agency offers a sliding scale fee based on income. Most of the agencies listed in this directory are intended to assist the public and will often make special arrangements for those unable to pay their required fees.

CLASSROOM INSTRUCTION

Some of the citizenship service agencies also provide classroom instruction. Others make referrals to local public schools providing instruction in the areas needed to pass the citizenship exam (U.S. history and government and English language proficiency). We have listed the courses offered by each agency, the length of the course and the size of classes.

If an agency does not provide citizenship classes, ask if they can refer you to groups providing citizenship training. You could also check with your public high schools or community colleges. Often, the local Board of Education provides some form of citizenship training classes. If all of these efforts fail, you could call the State Commissioner of Education in your state. The names and telephone numbers of these officials are listed in Appendix Two of this directory.

If after beginning to use this directory you have any questions, please call NALEO's citizenship hotline (1-800-44-NALEO) for further information. Once you have made the decision to naturalize, nothing should stand in your way.

La Guia Nacional de Servicios de Ciudadania de NALEO, la primera en su clase, proporciona informacion fundamental acerca de mas de 350 agencias a nivel comunitario que ofrecen servicios de ciudadania. Si es usted extranjero residente que busca informacion sobre el proceso de ciudadania, esta guia le remitira a personas que pueden ayudarle en su empeno. Si es usted un activista de la comunidad, un funcionario electo u otra parte interesada, la informacion presentada aqui puede ofrecerle una base de referencias a agencias que ofrecen servicios de ciudadania. Hemos tratado de resumir las caracteristicas mas destacadas de los servicios prestados por cada agencia segun descripcion de la propia agencia. Si no hemos incluido informacion que usted necesita o si tiene alguna pregunta acerca de la guia o el proceso de naturalizacion, (no dude en llamar gratuitamente a la linea urgente de informacion sobre ciudadania de NALEO). Puede llamar a NALEO desde las 9 hasta las 5, de lunes a viernes, al numero 1-800-44-NALEO (1-800-446-2536).

COMO UTILIZAR ESTA GUIA

La informacion proporcionada por cada agencia contiene hasta cinco secciones. Estas son: el nombre y direccion de la agencia, el numero de clientes servidos anualmente y el porcentaje de clientes que son hispanos, los servicios especificos ofrecidos por la agencia, los honorarios cargados por estos servicios y los tipos de instruccion en clase ofrecidos por la agencia. Incluimos solo las secciones aplicables a cada agencia. Por ejemplo, si la agencia no ofrece clases de ciudadania, no incluimos esa seccion.

DATOS SOBRE LA AGENCIA

Por cada agencia, hemos incluido una direccion y numero de telefono asi como el nombre de una persona en la agencia responsable de proporcionar servicios de ciudadania. Llame antes de visitar a la agencia. Algunas ofrecen asistencia en ciudadania solo en ciertos dias. Usted tambien debe verificar la direcion actual de la agencia antes de su primera visita puesto que algunas agencias tienen varias direcciones y otras han cambiado de domicilio. Esta guia esta organizada por cifras postales (ZIP codes). La mejor forma de buscar una agencia cerca de su residencia es buscar cifras postales similares a la suya. En el indice se da cada estado y el numero de la pagina en que comienzan las catalogaciones de agencias para dicho estado. Ya que ha encontrado el estado, encuentre la cifra postal para su zona. Si usted vive cerca de otro estado, tambien es conveniente buscar en las listas para el estado vecino (por ejemplo, los residentes de la zona norte de Nueva Jersey deberan buscar en la lista de Nueva York).

CLIENTES SERVIDOS

Si hay varias agencias de servicios de ciudadania en su zona, usted debe evaluar cual es la que mejor satisface sus necesidades. Si mas de una satisface sus necesidades de servicios [vea "Services Provided" (servicios ofrecidos)], pudiera ser util examinar que agencia es capaz de servir al mayor numero de clientes de ciudadania. Hemos incluido los numeros de clientes de ciudadania servidos anualmente y el numero de los clientes que pasan a ser ciudadanos anualmente, asi como el porcentaje de los clientes que son hispanos. Nuevamente, esta informacion se incluye solamente si fue facilitada a NALEO por la agencia.

SERVICIOS OFRECIDOS

Al recoger informacion de las empresas que proporcionan servicios de ciudadania, hemos constatado que se prestan con mayor frecuencia cinco servicios fundamentales. Estos servicios incluyen: o ayuda a llenar formularios, o asesoramiento sobre el proceso de ciudadania,

o asistencia juridica,

o referencias a otras agencias y preparacion de materiales para instruccion en clase.

Para cada agencia incluida aqui, hemos proporcionado la frecuencia con la que se prestan estos servicios. Si el servicio no esta incluido bajo el nombre de la agencia, la agencia no proporciono esa informacion a NALEO y lo mas probable es que no ofrezca ese servicio. Tambien hemos incluido informacion sobre servicios singulares ofrecidos por algunas agencias tales como traduccion, toma de huellas digitales y defensa ante el Servicio de Inmigracion y Naturalizacion, para darle un cuadro completo de los servicios de ciudadania disponibles en su zona.

HONORARIOS CARGADOS

Hemos incluido los honorarios cargados por cada agencia. Cuando es posible, damos una cantidad en dolares. Si esta cantidad no nos fue proporcionada, indicamos que se carga un honorario. En cualquier caso, asegurese de preguntar cual es el honorario por cualquier servicio de ciudadania antes de iniciar el proceso.

Si una organizacion carga un honorario que usted no puede pagar, compruebe para ver si la agencia ofrece un honorario de escala movil o gradual basado en el ingreso. La mayoria de las agencias incluidas en esta guia tienen como fin ayudar al publico y a menudo hacen arreglos especiales para aquellas personas que no pueden pagar los honorarios requeridos.

INSTRUCCION EN CLASES

Algunas de las agencias de servicios de ciudadania tambien proporcionan clases. Otras remiten a las personas que buscan tales servicios a escuelas publicas ques proporcionan instruccion en los campos requeridos para aprobar el examen de ciudadania (historia y gobierno de los Estados Unidos y suficiencia en el idioma ingles). Hemos incluido los cursos ofrecidos por cada agencia, la duracion del curso y el tamano de las clases.

Si una agencia no proporciona clases de ciudadania, pregunte si pueden remitirle a grupos que impartan capacitacion en ciudadania. Usted tambien pudiera comprobar con sus escuelas publicas de segunda ensenanza o centros de ensenanza superior de su comunidad. A menudo, la Junta de Educacion local proporciona alguna forma de clases de capacitacion en ciudadania.

Nuevamente, si despues de comenzar a usar la guia usted tiene preguntas, sirvase llamar a la linea urgente para ciudadania de NALEO (1-800-44-NALEO). Una vez que haya decidido naturalizarse, nada debera impedirle alcanzar su objetivo.

SUMMARY OF NATURALIZATION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

I. NATURALIZATION REQUIREMENTS

Anyone born in the United States or in an area subject to its jurisdiction (e.g., Puerto Rico) is a U.S. citizen by birth, regardless of the citizenship or immigration status of his or her parents. Certain people born abroad of U.S. Citizens are also citizens at birth.

Those who are not citizens by birth can secure citizenship through the naturalization process. There are six basic statutory requirements for naturalization, as described below.

A. Age

Candidates for naturalization must be at least 18 years of age, although a child under 18 can naturalize if a citizen parent files a naturalization petition on his or her behalf. Additionally, children under 18 can derive citizenship through the naturalization of their parents.

B. Lawful Permanent Residence

Generally, a candidate for naturalization must have been admitted to the United States for lawful permanent residence. This excludes temporary residents such as students and visitors, as well as undocumented aliens. Exempted from this requirement, however, are members or veterans of the armed forces who have served honorably in active duty during time of war. These individuals may be naturalized regardless of lawful admission, so long as they entered the armed forces in the United States or a territory outside of the U.S. specified by law.

C. Length of Residence

A petitioner for naturalization must have resided in the United States for at least five years just before filing the petition, been physically present in the U.S for periods totaling half that time (with no single absence of a year or longer), and resided in the state where his or her petition was filed for six months out of that five-year period.

Three notable exceptions to this requirement are spouses of U.S. citizens, certain members or veterans of the armed forces, and persons serving the U.S. overseas.

Marriage to a U.S. citizen qualifies an individual for citizenship after only three years' lawful permanent residence, provided his or her spouse has been a citizen for at least three years and the couple have been married and living together for at least the three-year period before the naturalization petition is filed. Only 18 months' physical presence in the U.S. is required.

Members or veterans of the armed forces who have served honorably during war time and who entered the military at one of the locations specified in the law need not ever have resided in the United States to qualify for naturalization. For armed forces members or veterans who have served honorably during peace time, requirements for residency and physical presence in the U.S. depend upon a variety of factors such as length and continuity of service.

Children deriving citizenship through the naturalization of their parents are not required to have lived in or been physically in the U.S. for any specified period of time.

D. Literacy

The law contains an English language requirement for naturalization which is met if the applicant can speak, read and write simple words and phrases in English. Exempt from the requirement are people physically unable to comply, young children, and those over 50 years of age who have lived in the United States for periods totaling 20 years after being admitted for lawful permanent residence.

E. Knowledge of U.S. History and Government

Applicants (except young children) must demonstrate knowledge of the fundamentals of the history and government of the United States by answering questions at a naturalization examination. If an English language exemption is granted, this test can be taken in the applicant's native language.

F. Good Moral Character

To naturalize, applicants must demonstrate that they have been of "good moral character" for the previous five years.

II. NATURALIZATION PROCEDURES

A. Application

The first step in the process is to complete a naturalization application and submit it to the local office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. This application contains the basic information necessary to establish eligibility for naturalization. Photographs, a fingerprint card, and a biographical forms are included with it.

B. Hearing and Investigation

Before naturalization can be approved, the following must occur:

1. First, the applicant is called into INS and questioned by an examiner about his/her eligibility for citizenship. It is at this stage that Knowledge of the English language and the history and government of the U.S. must be demonstrated. Further investigation of the applicant may be recommended by the examiner.
2. Meanwhile, the applicant's name and fingerprints are sent to the FBI. This affects the process only if it reveals an arrest not noted on the application.
3. The final petition for naturalization is prepared and filed with the clerk of the naturalization court, accompanied by a fee of 50 dollars.

RESUMEN DE LOS REQUISITOS Y PROCEDIMIENTOS PARA NATURALIZATION

I. REQUISITOS PARA NATURALIZACION

Toda persona nacida en Estados Unidos o en una zona sujeta a su jurisdiccion (por ejemplo, Puerto Rico) es ciudadano estadounidense por nacimiento, independientemente del estado de ciudadania o inmigracion de sus padres. Ciertas personas nacidas en el extranjero de ciudadanos estadounidenses tambien son ciudadanos al nacer.

Las personas que no son ciudadanos por nacimiento pueden obtener la ciudadania mediante el proceso de naturalizacion. Hay siete requisitos estatutarios fundamentales para la naturalizacion, tal como se describen a continuacion:

A. Edad

Los candidatos para naturalizacion han de tener al menos 18 anos de edad, aunque un nino menor de 18 anos puede naturalizarse si uno de los padres que sea ciudadano presenta una solicitud de naturalizacion en su nombre. Ademas, los ninos menores de 18 anos pueden obtener la ciudadania mediante la naturalizacion de sus padres.

B. Residencia permanente legal

Por lo general, un candidato para naturalizacion ha de haber sido admitido a Estados Unidos como residente legal. Esto excluye a residentes temporales tales com estudiantes y visitantes, asi como a extranjeros no documentados. Sin embargo, se exceptuan de este requisito a los miembros o veteranos de las fuerzas armadas que han servido honorablemente en servicio activo durante tiempo de guerra. Estos individuos pueden naturalizarse independiente de su admision legal, en tanto que hayan entrado en las fuerzas armadas de los Estados Unidos o un territorio fuera de Estados Unidos especificado por la ley.

C. Un solicitante de naturalizacion ha de haber residido en Estados Unidos al menos por cinco anos inmediatamente antes de presentar la solicitud, haber estado fisicamente presente en los Estados Unidos por periodos que asciedan en total a la mitad de ese lapso (sin una ausencia continua de un ano o mas) y haber residido en el estado en el que se presento su solicitud por seis meses de ese periodo de cinco anos.

Tres excepciones notables a este requisito son los conyuges de ciudadanos de los Estados Unidos, ciertos miembros o veteranos de las fuerzas armadas y personas que sirven a Estados Unidos en el extranjero.

El matrimonio con un ciudadano de los Estados Unidos habilita a un individuo para la ciudadania despues de solo tres anos de residencia permanente legal, siempre y cuando su conyuge haya sido ciudadano por al menos el periodo de tres anos antes de persentarse la peticion de naturalizacion. Solo se requiere una presencia fisica de 18 meses en Estados Unidos.

Los miembros o veteranos de las fuerzas armadas que hayan servido honorablemente durante tiempo de guerra y que entraran en el sector militar en uno de los lugares especificados en la ley no necesitan haber residido en Estados Unidos para calificar para la naturalizacion. Para los miembros de las fuerzas armadas o veteranos que han servido honorablemente en tiempo de paz, los requisitos para la residencia y la presencia fisica en los Estados Unidos dependen de una serie de factores tales como la longitud y la continuidad de servicio.

Los ninos que obtengan la ciudadania mediante la naturalizacion de sus padres no tendran que haber vivido o estado fisicamente presentes en Estados Unidos por un periodo de tiempo especifico.

D. Alfabetizacion

La ley contiene un requisito de conocimiento del idioma ingles para naturalizacion que se satisface si el solicitante puede hablar, leer y escribir palabras y frases en ingles. Estan exentos del requisito las personas que no puedan cumplirlo fisicamente, los ninos menor de edad y las personas mayores de 50 anos que han vivido en Estados Unidos por periodos que ascienden a un total de 20 anos despues de haber sido admitidos como residentes legales.

E. Conocimiento de la historia y gobierno de los Estados Unidos

Los solicitantes (salvo los ninos de corta edad) han de demostrar conocimiento de los aspectos fundamentales de la historia y el gobierno de los Estados Unidos contestando preguntas en un examen de naturalizacion. Si se otorga una exencion del idioma ingles, esta prueba podra tomarse en el idioma nativo del solicitante.

F. Buen caracter moral

Para naturalizarse, los solicitantes han de demostrar que han tenido "buen caracter moral" durante los pasados cinco anos.

II. PROCEDIMIENTOS PARA NATURALIZACION

A. Solicitud

El primer paso en el proceso consiste en llenar una solicitud de naturalizacion y persentarla a la oficina local del Servicio de Inmigracion y Naturalizacion. Esta solicitud contiene la informacion basica necesaria para establecer la elegibilidad para naturalizacion. Se incluyen con ella fotografias, una tarjeta de huellas digitales y un formulario biografico.

B. Audiencia e investigacion

Antes de poderse aprobar la naturalizacion, debera ocurrir los siguiente:

1. Primero, se llama al solicitante al Servicio de Inmigracion y Naturalizacion y un examinador lo interroga acerca de su elegibilidad para ciudadania. Es en esta etapa en la que ha de demostrarse conocimiento del idioma ingles y la historia y gobierno de los Estados Unidos. El examinador puede recomendar una investigacion adicional del solicitante.

2. Entretanto, el nombre y huellas digitales del solicitante se envian al FBI. Esta comprobacion afecta al proceso solo si pone de manifiesto que ha habido una detencion no consignada en la solicitud.

3. Se prepara y presenta la peticion final de naturalizacion al secretario del tribunal de naturalizacion, acompanada de un honorario de 50 dolares.
